DOYLESTOWN.

The memorial service held Thursday last in honor of President McKinley was in keeping with the patriotic sentiment which pervades the minds of the people.
The service was held in the town hall and was deeply in sympathy with the purpose of the demonstration. Excellent addresses were made by Hugh B. Eastburn, Hon. Robert M. Yulish, of Leary, and Judge Yerkes. William C. Ryan made a fine address at the Presbyterian Church in the evening. The services in the court house also included the singing of the national anthem. The service in the court house was especially interesting owing to the fact that he lived in the same house with President McKinley, for a number of years while both were members of Congress and knew him well. The sympathy and sorrow of the large audience was most sincere. So manifest was this feeling that the speakers were deeply impressed. In this connection it might be interesting to repeat a little story told some years ago concerning the friendly relations of Mr. Yulish with the late President. When both were members of Congress, President, then Congressman Mc-Kinley, was a most genial and democratic man, who cared more for his word than his appearance. Not that he neglected his appearance but that he was so much immersed in affairs he had little time to bestow upon his apparel. For a long time he wore an old hat and Mr. Yulish suggested to Senator Mason, of Illinois, that they should purchase a new hat and send it to Major McKinley. Mason entered into the spirit of the thing and the hat was purchased and delivered to Mr. McKinley. He appreciated the kindly spirit of fun and the purchase was sent, and wore the new hat the next day.County Superintendent William H. Slot-ter is preparing for the annual Teachers' Institute, in the way of lectures. Mr. Slot-ter has obtained for Monday evening E.
Hopkinson Smith, of Tennessee, who lectured last year, will appear Thursday evening. He is Hon. Alfred Taylor, said to be quite as eloquent as his brother.
Mrs. Helen Boise Hunnicker, will give a concert Friday evening. Mrs. Hunnicker is a great favorite here, having appeared several seasons. Among the day instructors will be Supt. Henry G. William, of Marietta, Ohio; Adam VanHelden, of Philadelphia; and Prof. Smith Burman,
of Philadelphia, and Prof. Smith Burman, of the West Chester State Normal School, all able instructors who have not appeared at previous institutes here; and Prof. H.
Kriebel, of the Parkersburg Seminary, Pa.
Frank E. Green, of the West Chester State Normal School, and Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction Henry Honeck, of Harrisburg, who have been popular here on previous years.There is very little doing in the way of politics just now. In spite of the efforts of the newspapers opposed to the State ticket to keep up enthusiasm the voters here simply refuse to respond and there is little doubt but that Republicans will lose to engage in a wholesale cutting of thrusts. The end events of the past few weeks has had a tendency to cause many Republicans to stop and reflect upon the principles their party represent. They have seen that the party in power is in the vain effort to effect a reform by electing Democrats. The drift of sentiment is rather in the direction of commencing the work within their own ranks which propose to arrive. A representative of the Municipal League was in town Monday to obtain signatures to nomination papers and met with a decidedly cold reception.
It was with difficulty that any names could be obtained. If Doylestown is a representative of the sentiment in other parts of the county Republicans will vote straight.Dr. S. C. Schumaker, of West Chester, began a series of lectures here on Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the Village Improvement Association. He is an entertaining speaker of natural training and was greeted by a large audience. The Association has done a great deal to improve the town and its proceeds of the lecture will be used for that purpose in future.FRED RATHBELL, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends here.Frank Hogsland, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to his studies at the University of Pennsylvania.The bridge over the canal on Smith street is almost completed. The approach has been lowered over a foot, and the cars will soon complete the loop through the boulevard.The ordinance granting the Pennsylvania Railroad the right of way through the Borough was signed by the Borough and returned to Council on the 17th instant.
Council also passed resolutions on the death of President McKinley.A number of residents have signed the contract with the Bell Telephone Company to have telephones installed in their residences under the new system now in successful operation in surrounding villages.
They are waiting the movement of the Telephone Company which are delayed on account of the non arrival of the necessary cable.Operations on the railroad have been somewhat delayed by the non arrival of the necessary material for repairing a burned car. Several carloads of engines, cars and other material have arrived but the non arrival of the necessary rails is responsible for the delay. A large contingent of foreign laborers have arrived and are being quartered in shanties constructed in the field opposite John Backes, on Philadelphia avenue. More are expected as soon as the necessary quarters can be provided. The work will not be commenced properly before the first of October.A "Home Camp Meeting" will be held in the M. E. Church from October 6 to 16th inclusive. Eloquent speakers have been procured and will occupy the pulpit as follows:
Sunday 6th, Old Folks Service, 10.30 a. m.
Monday 7th, Rev. E. E. Sutphin, Tuesday 8th, Rev. J. P. Miller, D. D.
Wednesday 9th, Rev. Rob't. Sutherland, Thursday 10th, Rev. A. S. Pittenger, Friday 11th, Rev. E. W. Burk Ph. D.
Saturday 12th, Rev. Jeremiah Brandreth, Sunday 13th, Rev. J. P. Miller, D. D.
Monday 14th, Rev. James Leonard Howard, Tuesday 15th, Rev. John Fox D. D.
Wednesday 16th, Love Feast.
